25X1

1. [redacted] in Stavropol in February 1950, [redacted] an accident occurred during tactical exercises in Stavropol. 25X1
2. An exercise was organized by the HQ 4 Kuban Cossack Cavalry Div for the units of the Stavropol Garrison. The purpose of this exercise was apparently fighting inside the town. During the advance of the attacking troops a smoke-screen was used in the Market Square area. By mistake a poison gas was used which spread in the Market Square and adjacent streets. Fortunately a strong wind neutralized the effect of the gas but approximately 200 persons were poisoned. It took quite a long time before the panic was over, the victims taken to the hospital and order restored.
3. [redacted] There were no deaths, but most of the victims spent over a week in the hospital. The symptoms of the poisoning were vomiting and giddiness. A number of people fainted. 25X1
